

Regulations about using trading accounts with Swap – Free status

from 02.09.2010

1. This Regulations describe the procedure of use the swap-free accounts and is an Addition to the "Trader Agreement."
2. Opening an account with swap-free status (or changing the status of already existing account to swap-free), means that the client got acquainted with these Rules, and the Regulations are deemed to be in effect.
3. Changing the status of account to swap-free is fulfilled by the service "Support Center", only upon the written request of the client, in a form of appropriate application.
4. AccentForex.com may refuse to provide services of swap-free with no explanation reasons.
5. After switching to the swap-free status on any type of provided accounts ("Mini", "PROfit", "STP"), swaps for all instruments will not be charged.
6. Also, there are no commissions for switching account into swap-free status, and for its further use either.
7. Client at any given time can issue a written request for switching the account to swap-free, and vice versa. However, in case of reapplication switching, AccentForex.com reserves the right to refuse in switching or request an additional information related to switching into another account status.
8. AccentForex.com reserves the right to switch back an account from a swap-free group into usual swap status (with accrual swaps for the past period):
 - In the case of work on non-trading profit ways (including the difference in interest rates), as well as other fraud methods;
 - In the case when there is no trading activity in the account for 40 days or more.
9. The Regulations is of primary importance before the "Trader Agreement" at consideration of disputable situations or different interpretations.
10. The place of execution of the Regulations parties recognize place of conclusion main agreement on service provision.